Lind Ticket Beebe has got the big hat and Leary the silk-cushioned show boxes, but Warnock, at 275, and oppocite Stewart's, on Broadway, has got, besides a mountain of Hats, Caps, &c., the most unique and beautiful show piece of liquid fire, ever displayed in Gothum. Later from California.

The stenger Conscent City arrived at New York about 12 o'clock Wednesday night from Chagres, bringing 527 passengers, and $770,145 in gold dust. The news from California is to the 15th of May inclusive. The intelligence of the extensive fire nt San Francisco is too true ; it occurred on the third of May. So destructive a conflagration has not taken place on this continent, nor elsewhere, we presume, since the Great Fire in New loss is estimated at $12,000,000. The city of Stockton has also been the scene of a conflagration, which has destroyed about ball the town, and property to the estimated value of $1,000,000.

About the same time an Earthquake was experienced in California more severe than often occurs in so high a latitude. No damage, however, seems to have been done, though the inhabitants were much alarmed.

Business at San Francisco was entirely decauged by the conflagration, and the prices of articles were considerably enhanced.

The mail did not come by the Crescent City, but was left for the Covernment steamer Cherokee.

The accounts from the gold mines are favorable.

The particulars of the fire are given by a correspondent of the Journal of Commerce as follows :- Three fourths of our beautiful city is destroyed by fire, which broke out in a small wooden building on the South side of the Plaza. On the evening of Saturday, 3d May, 95 Warnock! who has not heard of at 11 o'clock at night, the cry of "fire" was sounded. I rushed out of my room, and when I reached the spot, the flames were just issuing from the building (two stories high.) adjoining the old American Hotel. The flames spread with fearful rapidity, and for a short time, the Post Office building was in great then East, then North, until nearly; the entire business part of the city was destroyed. Every newspaper office in the city is burned, except the Alta California. Every Hanking house is prostrate in the dust, excepting that of F. Argenti & Co., (the Prince of Bankers,) and Wells & Co.'s large banking house was entirely destroyed; also, Burgoyne & Co., Page, Bacon & Co., B. Davidson, agent of the Rothschilds. These buildings were all of brick, and thought to of the relation of the property of the propert Church, Beebe, Ludlow & Co., D. J. Taliant & Co., and others are all burned out. It will be a much easier matter to give the names of those merchants > were destroyed. The destruction of property is certainly overwhelming, and cannot be contemplated without feelings of extraordinary and overpowering emotion.-Our supply of goods (with a few exceptions) is still large. Perhaps a dozen lives have been lost. At an hoor of greatest hope and buoyancy of spirits, thousands that were rich and increased in goods on the evening of Saturday, May 2d, were, on the dawn of a Sabbath morning, pennilees and houseless; others badly burned, bruised and injured; and not a few injured for

It is impossible to estimate with any degree of accuracy the immense value of property destroyed by this terrible disaster which has befallen our city and that, too, on the very anniversary day of the "big fire" one year since. The loss in goods alone could not be replaced short of five millions of dollars; inch and a-half in thickness, and unless and of buildings, certainly as much more. Three-fourths of our merchants have lost their stores, goods, and not a few their all.

The building used for assaying U.S. ingots, &c , by Modatt & Humbert, was totally consumed,-and it will be six weeks before they will be able to resume business. Consequently gold of California coinage is now selling by the ounce at $19, which is equal to about 10 per cent. discount.

During the week past gold dust has been abundant, and selling at about $16 14 the ounce, which is a decline, but few Bankers having means at their command to buy with, besides the inconveniences which many suffer of being burned out. Unrency is becoming quite starce of late, $100,000 in silver having been sent within a few days to Alexico. Lots of ground in good business loca tions, eay 20x to are selling to-day for $2,000 to $3,000 each, which can be rented out immediately for stores at gS 1-2 to 10 per foot, according to their location. The fire of Stockton agnited in a new and beautistic house just opened under the name of Murchants' Hotel, Tormerly known as the Branch, and beyond a doubt was the work of an incendrary,--It is supposed that some miscreant inceed in releasing the prisoners now comfined in the county jail, but the purpore failed in its accomplishment. From the point at which it originated, the fire swept up Levec street, prostrating Montgomery's auction establishment, the large and magnificent El Placer building, El Dorado, Hotel do Tejico, Drs. Clements and Reind's drug store, Dickinson Rouse, and all the buildings on these two central squares. From them t spread across to the Central House. The occupants of the Stockton Club Room succeeded in saving their baild-York on the (6th December, 1825. The ing, though they were in imminent danger. Every mercantile house on Levee street, all on El Dorado street, except two, and all on Hunter except three, compose the victims of this inendiary attempt.

The loss is estimated at one million of dollars.

At 8 o'clack on the morning of the 16th May, a severe shock of an earth quake was felt. The balldings all shook and trembled; the gumblers upon Long Wharf rushed from their tables leaving their gold and silver cudrely unprotected. People rushed from their beds into the street, and the utmost alarm was created. It seemed, at one time, as though the city would be engulphed.

The sun was chining beautifully at the time, and the thermometer ranging about 60.

Not a single failure has occurred in San Francisco, notwithstanding the fire-A mile square has been burned, it is said, and in the very heart of the city-Three storeships were destroyed, the Niuntic, General Barrison, and Apollo.

Thos. Butter King, the Collector of the Part, was absent from the city (up at the mines) at the time of the fire.

The officers of the Custom House saved the specie of the office by easting it in a well. About $1,000,000 were saved in this way. A. J. Cost, navel danger. Soon the fire spread South officer, Mr. Brown, appraiser, Mr. Green, collector, and a number of others in the Naval department, had all of their private effects destroyed. The books and papers of the department were nearly all saved.

The most terrible scene was enacted in the iron building of Taaffe & McCathe little brick building of James King, hill, at the corner of Montgomery and Sacramento streets. Into this live persome had gone after the flames had reached it, in order to save some valuable articles. They closed all the icon. window-shutters and doors, so that no heartean ein omicht ander wo When they longer, they attempted to get out; but horrible to relate, the windows and doors had expanded an by the heat. that all their efforts were mable to opand others whose stores and buildings en them. All within perished in the were not consumed, than those that flames. The calcined hones could be een subsequently emouldering amid. the ruins beneath.

The election in Sacramento has resulted in the triumph of the Whig candidates for all the principal offices, except that of Mayor.

Among those from this vicinity who, have suffered by the fire, we notice, Richard M. Sherman, $65,000; Henry Read & Co., $7,509 | S. C. McIntyre, 3,500. By the fire at Stuckton, J. M. Scoffeld and O. F. Jackson, $11,000.

Noiseless Wheels-A New Invenyos.—In this instance the invention consists in the application of a solid band of valconized india tubber over the iron tire of the wheel. The india rubber is held in its place by the tire, having a raised rim on both sides and by its own clusticity. The band of an ordinary carriage wheel is about an inch to an on close inspection, no difference from the common iron-shot is perceptible.--We have driven some distance in a carriage with the wheels so shod, and were struck not only with their noiselessness, but at the perfect smoothness of the motion-the wheels being in fact springe, and by their clasticity giving a lighter draught than with the iron tire-We have seen one sett of wheels which have been driven 4,000 miles; they have here and there a triffing out, but show no appearance of being work out and seem quite capable of another three or four thousand. An iron tire is generally worn out in 3,000, so the india rubber tire has so her proved itself the more lasting. It is certainly a great addition to the luxury of a carriage to have it run without jar or noise; and it would be universal comfort to have the streets of cities without the present incresant rattle of carriages and omni busees, &c .- Scientific Am.

Gials, no you HIVE THAT?-Miss Fanny Whitacy, agod twenty-two, diedrecently at Bristal, England, under eircounstances which conduced an inquest necessary, and the predical testimony clearly showed that the deceased was perfectly iree from the ase, and that there was no visible cause of drath except from the compact, on of the stomtended by this Diabolical means to such ach and vicera from fight lacing,

THE GRAVE OF S. S. PRENTISS. BY Z. YORK, ESQ.

I have mentioned the State of Maine; and, with your generous permission, betore I enter on the topic of the lecture, which is "The recollections of National Freedom," I will pause a moment over another recollection.

But a little more than a sale from the beauty-haunted streets of Natchez, close by the roadsale, is a sweet umbrageous grove of flowering shrubs and trees that bend their pensive branches to the ground, as if they over-shadowed and guarded some precious deposit. A paling incloses them; and although a palace-like mansion is near, and a proudly embowered domain, yet a sweet and sacred stillness rests over the grave,---Birds of mellodious song and glorious plomage pour out their most thrilling harmonies there; and well they may, for, beneath the boughs they stand on, sleeps one whose voice had more than the witchery of all the chorists of the fragrant forests of the south!

And the thunder cloud, that oftentimes rolls above that place of lowly rest, solemnly researsing its deep-toned attestations of its Eternal Greator's sovereignty and power, may hush for a moment, its finitful growt. He who sleeps there could thunder like a Demosthenes; and the flash of his intellect and the corruscations of wit were as dazzling and as rapid as those which leap from youder overarching canopy of storm!

There sleeps Prentiss! The boy from Maine, who came in youth to Mississippi to live-to win immortal fame; and who came back to it in the high noon of his manhood to die--and find so sweet and quiet a grave.

Domestic Bliss,-" I cannot conceive, my love, what is the matter with my watch. I think it wants cleaming."

Pet Child -"Oh no, papa dear, I don't think it wants cleaning; because baby and I had it in the basin washing it for ever so long this murning."

There are now forty female students in the Female Medical College in Philadelphia. Two of their number hail rom Massachusetts.

One instance in particular, in which the uperior vitrues of this medicine her keen tested, has fallen under our observation. During the last summer, a son of Mr. Alvalam, Crabill, of this county, was very seriously afflected with Liver Casulaint, and after trying in vair various remedies, he purchased a bottle of the Bitters, and after owing it, was so much reflected of his distressing standay, that he procured another bottle, and is restored youtire to a fixed the BEAD MIDPHILE A EFFON MACTES.

"We believe Dr. C. M. Jackson's 'Hoofland's. We believe Dr. C. M. This medicine is Insocent, but strengthening in its effects, and richly descring of an unbounded popularity, which, when it becomes known, it will, no doubt, fully enjoy."
Judge M. M. Noah said, in his "Veckly Mexcager," Jamany 6, 1850,

It is made after a pracerpition furnished by one of the most celebrated physician of modern times—the late Dr. Christopher Willham Handand, professor to the University of Jena, private physician to the king of Prussia, and one of the greatest medical writers Germany has ever produced. He was emphatically the electry of trending, and therefore a medicine of which he was the inventor and emboreer may be confidently relied on. Evidence upon evidence has been received (like the foregoing) from all sections of the Union, the ket three years, and the strongest testino by in its twore, is, that there is more of it used in the practice of the regular Physicians of Philodelphia, than all other mostrons considered, a fact that can easily be established, and fully proving that a scientific typepration will meet with their quiet approval when presented even in this form.
